Stepping Stones shares the story of hope for the recovery from alcoholism, in the individual and the family, as it is embodied in the lives and home of Bill and Lois Wilson. Bill Wilson was the co-founder of Alcoholics Anonymous, and Lois Wilson co-founded Al-Anon. Stepping Stones, is where they lived the last half of their lives and lived the AA way of life.

Support for Stepping Stones goes directly toward preserving the house and grounds and carrying on the legacy of the Wilsons for generations to come.

The front image is a drawing made by Lois Wilson. (color has been added) It depicts her and Bill sitting by the fireplace at Stepping Stones. She used it as her holiday card in 1970.
