DC Public Library

Conscious Contact: Exploring Recovery Through Film and Story

Film Screening & Author Talk

Two Lives, One Legacy:

Bill, Lois and the Power of Family Recovery

Go deeper on how this happened.

LEAD SPONSORS

DC Public Library (Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Library)

Psychiatric Institute of Washington (PIW)

SPONSORS

Ashley Addiction Treatment

Greenbelt Step Club

Mann House

FRIENDS IN RECOVERY SPONSORS

Jackie G.

Mark F.

Jim C.

Mike A.

greenbelt CINEMA

Join Jay Stinnett, the producer of the new award-winning documentary film and book Bill W.: Conscious Contact, for a screening of this groundbreaking film, and...

Joy Jones and Tom Adams, co-authors of the most up to date and complete story of A Marriage that Changed the World: Lois and Bill Wilson and the Addiction Recovery Movement.

Featuring a Q&A with Jay, Joy, and Tom. This story is one of the most important breakthroughs of the last century.

Join us to view the film and experience an evening of fresh revelations of these two dynamic people who have impacted the lives of millions.

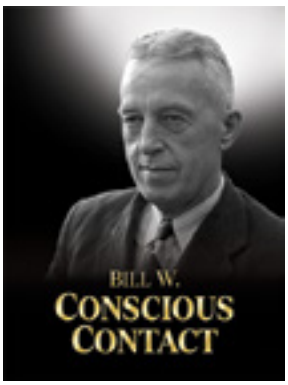
There are three opportunities to participate:

Monday November 9, 6:00pm
Washington DC (Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Library)
901 G St. NW (easily accessible from Metro)
Admission is FREE on Monday hosted by the DC Public Library
Register here: https://dclibrary.libnet.info/event/17641558

Tuesday November 10, 6:30pm Greenbelt Cinema,
129 Centerway, Greenbelt, MD
Admission $10

Wednesday November 11, 6:30pm The Senator Theater,
5904 York Road, Baltimore MD
Admission $10

All venues offer easy access and parking.



GREENBELT PUBLISHERS

Muse Bookings LLC